Dear Prison Ministries,

I would like to thank you for the compliment on my grand writing on my last lesson that was graded. I know it has been awhile since I last completed my assignment, it has been a rough struggle for me adjusting to being incarcerated for the first time. I struggle with self esteem, confidence & I worry way too much about things I can not control. My bible lessons have helped me a lot but I still get down on myself... I am sorry that some of these pages have been cut into, but it was the process of them opening our mail. Once again I'd like to say thank you, I have been told too often I write like a girl.

Sincerely Yours
