"I wait for the LORD, my soul doth wait, and in his word do I hope. My soul waiteth for the Lord more than they that watch for the morning: I say, more than they that watch for the morning." Ps 130,5-6
We all are waiting. Thank God everybody enjoy a good health. The Lord is our hope to open the gates of the prisons. We pray that the Lord keep us healthy and full of energy so that we can glorify Him through our ministry.

Countries across Europe have begun to ease lockdown measures including Romania. I had a phone call with the director of education from MCIUC and he expressed his desire to be able to work together as soon as possible. A relief has already come, glory to the Lord. We can already get out of homes without fear. Brother Baboi said with joy that he was able to go out with his children to a children's playground. For his family, it was like being in prison for two months.

Little by little, meetings can be held in churches. A picture from Brother Dragu with the church, for the time being in the courtyard. Many brothers from the evangelical churches went to agriculture work in Western Europe.

We are waiting to meet a new volunteer potential: Ristea Crisian. We have been corresponding for a while, he is eager to enter the prison ministry. He lives in Bucharest, has been working for evangelical radio for 22 years. For a while he wants to do more in the face to face mission. He is a very popular person among Christians. The good news is that the gypsy church has also done some maintenance work around the church, pastor John and some church members.

With love in Christ,
